On San Francisco Bay

1939 WORLD'S FAIR

Rising as a veritable "Treasure Island" from San Francisco Bay, the Golden Gate International Exposition will stand as a symbol of the past achievements, and as a prophecy for the future, of the great Western Empire and Pacific area.

San Francisco's World's Fair, dedicated to the completion of the two giant bridges which frame its world-famous setting, and to the ocean-conquering flights of the China Clipper, will tell the story of recreation as the heritage of modern man from the age of the machine.

Built upon the world's largest man-made island, the 1939 World's Fair will open its gateways on February 18, 1939. For 288 days and nights during America's Exposition Year, millions of people will throng through the palaces and gardens of this Magic City on Treasure Island, built at a cost of nearly $50,000,000.

The interdependent unity of the family of nations, as portrayed in the great exhibits of the industrial arts and social sciences, will be given a new interpretation to both the tourist and the business man in 1939.

Here will rise the towers and palaces of a magic city, bringing the message of the American way of life, and a newer conception of the relationship of work and play. Here will be shown the ever-fascinating story of the Western Wonderland with its vast resources and prospering peoples.

Western in architecture and spirit, the beauty and splendor of the gardens, palaces, and setting of this World's Fair will stimulate and inspire the 20,000,000 visitors who will pass through its portals, to see and enjoy the industrial wizardry and theatrical pageantry on Treasure Island in 1939.

INTRODUCTION

R. L. POLK & CO., publishers of the San Francisco Directory, as well as more than 700 other city, county, state and national directories, present to subscribers and the general public, this, the 1938 edition of the San Francisco Directory.

Confidence in the growth of San Francisco's wealth, industry and population, and in the advancement of its municipal and social activities, will be created as sections of this directory are consulted, for the directory is a mirror truly reflecting San Francisco to the world.

The enviable place occupied by R. L. POLK & CO.'s directories in offices, stores, libraries and homes throughout the country has been established by rendering the best in directory service. With an unrivaled organization, having the courteous and hearty cooperation of the business and professional men and residents, the publishers feel that the result of their labors will meet with the approval of every user, and that the San Francisco Directory will fulfill its mission as a source of authentic information pertaining to the city.

POPULATION

The estimated population of San Francisco is 864,891, based on the number of individuals' names in the alphabetical section of the directory, with due allowance for children and for women whose names are not listed separately from those of their husbands.

FOUR MAJOR DEPARTMENTS

The several essential departments are arranged in the following order:

THE STREET AND AVENUE GUIDE is embraced in pages 18 to 35; in this feature the names of all streets and avenues are arranged alphabetically, giving beginning and ending, and line of general direction.

THE ALPHABETICAL LIST OF NAMES of residents, business firms and corporations is included in pages 37 to 1644.

THE BUYERS' GUIDE, opposite page 1644, printed on tinted paper, contains the advertisements of leading manufacturing, business and professional interests of San Francisco. These pages will be found particularly interesting and instructive to substantial purchasing factors. The advertisements have been carefully grouped by departments and are indexed under headings descriptive of the business represented. This is reference advertising at its best, and, as such, merits a survey by all buyers anxious to familiarize themselves with sources of supply. The city's activities, in many interesting phases, are authentically pictured. In an ambitious and progressive community like San Francisco, the necessity of having this kind of information available is very great and, frequently, pressing. General appreciation of this fact is evidenced by the liberal support the city directory enjoys in the many fields which it serves.

THE CLASSIFIED BUSINESS DIRECTORY is included in pages 1645 to 1820. This department lists the various manufacturing, mercantile and professional interests in alphabetical order under appropriate headings. This feature constitutes an invaluable and indispensable epitome of the business interests of the community. "The Directory is the common intermediary between Buyer and Seller." As such it plays no small part in the daily doings of the business world. "More goods are bought and sold through the Classified Business Directory than through any other medium."

MUNICIPAL PUBLICITY

The directory reflects the achievements and ambitions of the city, depicting in truthful terms what it has to offer as a place of residence, as a business location, as an industrial site and as an educational center. To broadcast this information, the publishers have placed copies of this issue of the directory in Directory Libraries, where they are readily available for free public reference and serve as perpetual and reliable advertisements of San Francisco, for business men, everywhere, realize that the city directory represents a community as it really is.

THE SAN FRANCISCO DIRECTORY LIBRARY

Through the courtesy of the publishers of the San Francisco City Directory, a Directory Library is maintained in the offices of the publishers at 604 Mission street, for free reference by the general public. This library is one of the system of more than 450 installed and operated in the chief cities of the U. S. and Canada, under the supervision of the Association of North American Directory Publishers, of which R. L. Polk & Co. is a member.

The publishers appreciatively acknowledge the recognition by those progressive business and professional men who have demonstrated their confidence in the city directory as an advertising medium, with assurance that it will bring a commensurate return.

R. L. POLK & CO., Publishers.

SAN FRANCISCO

HISTORICAL

San Francisco is located centrally on the coast in 37° 47′ 22-25″ N. Latitude and 122° 25′ 40-76″ W. Longitude and situated on a peninsula bounded on the west by the Pacific Ocean, the north and east by the Bay of San Francisco and on the south by wooded hills and fertile valleys. Its elevation extends from sea level to 965 feet. The city covers an area of about 45.2 square miles and is built principally on hills. The population as of January 1, 1938, amounted to 747,049.

The San Francisco Bay Region was discovered in July, 1769, by Don Gaspar de Portola's soldiers, who were seeking the Monterey Bay. In 1775 Don Manuel Ayala sailed the first ship through the Golden Gate into the San Francisco Bay. The San Carlos was the name of the vessel.

Years before, however, Sir Francis Drake brought his vessel, the Golden Hind, close to the Golden Gate and ran her ashore at what is now known as Drake's Bay. This was in 1579 and the first religious service in the English language was held on the Pacific Coast by the chaplain of the Golden Hind.

In 1776 a land expedition commanded by Colonel Juan Bautista de Anza arrived on the San Francisco peninsula and established the Presidio and the Mission Dolores. In 1777 Padre Junipero Serra, father of the California missions, arrived in San Francisco. The settlement was known as Yerba Buena until 1847, when it became San Francisco.

In 1806 the Russians attempted to establish themselves in and about San Francisco. They established a settlement at Fort Ross, near Santa Rosa, but after a few years gave it up, disposing of all movable fixtures and arms to Capt. John A. Sutter of Sacramento.

In 1846 war was declared by the United States on Mexico and on July 9, 1848, Capt. John B. Montgomery of the United States Navy arrived in the sloop-of-war "Portsmouth" and raised the American flag in what is now Portsmouth Square; thus without great excitement San Francisco passed from Spanish to Mexican and finally American rule.

San Francisco's greatest excitement perhaps came with the discovery of gold in 1848. People rushed here by every known mode of transportation and in thousands. The population increased steadily and the port became the most important on the Pacific Coast, which position it has steadily maintained.

Because of the number of lawless individuals during the fifties, the citizens organized the Vigilance Committee and after a short campaign succeeded in ridding the city of the law breakers.

GOVERNMENT

San Francisco has a combined City and County Government functioning as a Municipal Corporation, which began January 8, 1932, to operate under a new Charter (Freeholders). Under this new Charter the Legislative Powers are vested in a Board of Supervisors consisting of 11 members. The Administrative Powers are vested in a Mayor and a Chief Administrative Officer, the latter appointed by the Mayor. The people elect the Mayor, Assessor, Treasurer, Sheriff, Public Defender, Supervisors, District Attorney, City Attorney, Municipal and Superior Court Judges and the members of the Board of Education.

The salary of the Mayor is $10,000 per year and the major Departments under him include the Police, Fire, Park, Recreation, and Library, the Art Commission, the Utilities Commission, Civil Service Commission, and City Planning Commission.

The Chief Administrative Officer, appointed by the Mayor, receives a salary of $12,000 a year and has under him the following Departments of Finance and Records, Purchasing, Real Estate, Department of Public Works, Department of Electricity, Street Traffic Advisory Board, Department of Public Health, County Welfare Department, Coroner's Office, Horticultural Inspection Department, and Department of Weights and Measures.

The Controller is responsible to the Mayor and is appointed by him subject to the confirmation and approval of the Board of Supervisors.

HARBOR AND COMMERCE

Centered in the San Francisco Bay Area, San Francisco is an important port of general commerce, handling a large and valuable domestic and foreign trade. It is the main gateway of commerce for the vast territory of the Central Pacific Coast Area and Intermountain States. The Bay extends from the Golden Gate to the confluence of the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers on the northeast, and to a point near San Jose on the south, covering an area of 450 square miles. The deep-water commerce enters San Francisco Bay through the Golden Gate, which is but one mile wide, thus affording natural protection from the ocean to the waters of the San Francisco Bay. To this has been added the most comprehensive docking and berthing facilities, rail and freight connections, modern and well-equipped warehouses, etc. San Francisco harbor has 17 miles of berthing space and this is constantly being added to; there are 8,122,524 square feet of cargo area, with a capacity of 2,030,600 tons of cargo; 43 modern piers; facilities to dock the largest vessels; seven drydocks; 160 spur tracks; 66 miles of harbor trackage connecting piers and warehouses; car capacity for 3600 cars; 42 cranes, derricks and aerials.

The harbor is controlled by the State of California and is governed by a board of harbor commissioners appointed by the Governor. Of the 43 piers, most of them are assigned to steamship companies having their own fleets and operating their own schedules. San Francisco harbor facilities are valued at $100,000,000.

The water-borne commerce of San Francisco has trebled since pre-war days and now ranks second in value of all ports in the United States and 50 per cent above any other Pacific Coast port.

	Arrivals	Registered Tonnage	Departures	Registered Tonnage
1923..........	6792	15,049,446	6830	14,802,870

Exports during 1936 amounted to...........$97,296,822

Imports during 1936 amounted to............$67,853,252

The principal exports by tons are mineral oil, gasoline, dried and canned fruits, barley, fresh fruits, petroleum asphalt, lumber, iron, steel scrap, salt.

The principal imports are copra, sugar, paper, coffee, burlap and bags, bananas, fertilizers, and ores.

The 1936 report of the U. S. Army Engineers shows the distribution of the tonnage, domestic and foreign, during 1935 as follows:

Total tonnage, San Francisco Bay........	26,962,032	Tons
Foreign tonnage	3,302,338	"
Inland waterway tonnage................	8,898,495	"
Domestic Coastwise and Intercoastal tonnage.	14,761,199	"

Besides the movement of commodities by water, there is a large rail traffic in San Francisco; during 1936 it reached 207,080 carloadings and unloadings, not including less-than-carload business.

San Francisco is also the ocean port for the great inland empire of California, 500 miles in length, 50 miles wide and containing 16,100,000 acres of irrigable land, 5,000,000 acres of which is under irrigation. Approximately 33 per cent of the tonnage of the port is received from points on the Sacramento and San Joaquin Rivers, which drain a large portion of the "back country."

San Francisco is the port of call for 181 steamship lines.

TRANSPORTATION

San Francisco is the terminus of three Class I railroads and a number of short lines. These railroads thoroughly blanket California and neighboring States, and by means of seven major transcontinental routes with convenient connections, provide fast, dependable service to and from all parts of the United States, Canada and Mexico. Passenger trains, second to none, are operated to and from the city.

No Pacific Coast port has lower rates or better service to and from the hinterland than San Francisco. Overnight freight service is provided to Los Angeles and all points in the San Joaquin and Sacramento Valleys as well as to numerous points along the coast. A greater proportion of the territory west of the Rocky Mountains is reached to advantage from San Francisco than from any other Pacific Coast port.

Store door pick-up and delivery for less than carload traffic is available between San Francisco and many points in Arizona, Nevada, Utah, Idaho and Oregon.

Intercoastal water rates bring San Francisco as close to the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts as Chicago and northern Mississippi Valley points. Sailings to Atlantic Coast ports average 35 per month and to Gulf ports six sailings per month.

Departures for the Hawaiian Islands average 15 per month and the applicable freight rates are as low as rates for only 70 miles by rail or truck.

Over sixty steamship lines operate between San Francisco and foreign ports providing frequent passenger and freight service to and from the major ports, the Orient, Australia, New Zealand, the South Sea Islands, both coasts of Central and South America, northern and southern Europe and certain ports in Africa. Round-the-world liners leave San Francisco at least twice a month. San Francisco is the home port of many of the most luxurious passenger liners operating on the Pacific Ocean.

Coastwise lines furnish frequent service between San Francisco and other ports in California, Oregon, Washington, and British Columbia. A huge fleet of inland water carriers ranging from palatial passenger steamers to humble barges navigate San Francisco Bay and waters tributary thereto, carrying an immense tonnage to and from the ultra-modern docks of the city.

Over thirty common carrier truck lines provide scheduled services to and from California and points north, east and south of San Francisco. A dozen or more interstate lines radiate to points in neighboring states and by means of connections, reach much of the western half of the United States.

Certificates issued by the Railroad Commission of California and the Interstate Commerce Commission govern these operations.

In addition, more than 60 truck operators having headquarters or agencies in San Francisco hold intrastate contract carrier, radial common carrier or city carrier permits from the Railroad Commission of California or interstate contract carrier permits from the Interstate Commerce Commission. All rates and services are subject to regulation by these Commissions.

Bus lines which are also under regulation, radiate north, east and south providing fast, commodious passenger service between San Francisco and all important points in California and the eleven Western States. There are also four transcontinental bus services. In addition, there are numerous sightseeing tours operated between San Francisco and neighboring points of interest. Buses are always available for charter parties.

Three modern air terminals in the San Francisco Bay Area are within thirty minutes of the heart of San Francisco. The recently enlarged Municipal Airport is the focal point of transcontinental and north/south services by the most modern transport planes. It is the eastern terminus for the famous clippers providing service to and from the Hawaiian Islands, Philippine Islands and the Orient. Service to and from Australia and New Zealand is in process of development.

MANUFACTURES

The manufacturing industries in San Francisco comprise an important part of the city's activities. During normal times 20 per cent of the people gainfully occupied in San Francisco are engaged in manufacturing and mechanical industries.

The value of manufactures in 1936 is estimated at $301,000,000, compared to $287,461,000 as reported in the 1935 United States Census. (See double-column table at bottom of page.)

The ten manufacturing classifications reporting highest value of product in San Francisco in the 1931 U. S. Census (b) amounted to $135,885,062, or 42.7 per cent of the total. They are:

Printing and Publishing	$34,590,977
Coffee and Spices	29,774,418
Bread and Bakery Products	15,943,981
Meat Packing, Wholesale	13,865,984

Comparative figures for 97 classifications of industry for thirty major industrial areas of the nation show the San Francisco-Oakland Industrial Area averaged seventh as a manufacturing center in 1929. The San Francisco-Oakland Industrial Area ranked first in five industries; second in two industries; third in eight industries; fourth in five industries; and fifth in ten industries; and between sixth and tenth in fifty-one.

The ten manufacturing classifications reporting highest value of product in the San Francisco-Oakland Industrial Area in the 1931 U. S. Census amounted to $334,482,472, or 45.5 per cent of the area total. They are:

Petroleum Refining	$77,190,111
Motor Vehicles	46,526,144
Printing and Publishing	43,362,739
Canned and Dried Fruits and Vegetables	40,064,843

Foundry and Machine Shop Products	14,604,121
Paints and Varnishes	13,463,782
Electrical Machinery, Apparatus and Supplies	13,131,657

Many of the large key industries in the San Francisco Metropolitan Area with their plants outside of the corporated city limits have their headquarters in San Francisco from which they conduct their finances, purchases and sales.

TRADE

Trade at retail in San Francisco, amounting to $298,532,000, was reported by the U. S. Census Bureau in the 1935 census. The report shows 10,247 retail stores with full-time employment of 39,023 men and women. The per capita sales at retail amount to $420.

Trade at wholesale in San Francisco, amounting to $911,747,000, was reported in the 1933 census. This volume led all other Pacific Coast cities by more than 37 per cent. The reports show 2696 establishments engaged in trade at wholesale.

FINANCE

San Francisco has become the financial center of the West, principally because of the operating advantages available to those institutions which have centered their activities here. Thirteen hundred firms of national reputation have established their Western headquarters in San Francisco.

The Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco is the headquarters of the Twelfth Federal Reserve District, which ranked third in volume of business during 1936, measured by bank debits.

One of the major regional Stock Exchanges in the United States is maintained in San Francisco. There are also the San Francisco Curb Exchange and the San Francisco Mining Exchange.

The fourth largest bank in the United States has its headquarters here, and six of the 22 banks in San Francisco are among the first 50 banks of the nation. Four banks are branch systems operating a total of 560 branches throughout the State. Of the 22 banks in San Francisco, 17 are under State supervision. Of the 17 banks, 8 operate entirely in the commercial field; 2 are domestic institutions; and 6 are branches of foreign banks. Of the remaining 9 State institutions, 3 are commercial, savings and trust; 1 commercial and savings; 1 strictly savings; 1 strictly commercial; 1 savings and trust; and 2 title insurance companies operating trust departments; there are 5 national banks, all of which operate trust departments. The trust departments are under State supervision.

San Francisco is the insurance center of the West. More than 12 billion dollars of insurance is in force in California. Seven hundred authorized companies were doing business in California at the close of 1936. The premiums and assessments of all groups amounted to $335,833,070 in 1935.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS

First comes the group in the Civic Center, declared by the Duke of Connaught to be the finest thing of its kind in the world. The group consists: (1) City Hall, of classic design, surmounted by an immense dome, higher than the dome of the Capitol at Washington. Cost, $4,000,000. (2) Exposition Auditorium, seating capacity of 12,000 in the main auditorium, with numerous small halls; cost, $2,000,000. (3) San Francisco Public Library; cost, $1,500,000. (4) State Building; cost, $1,000,000. (5) War Memorial group of buildings, as a part of Civic Center, cost, $4,000,000, consisting of civic opera house, American Legion halls, etc. A Federal Building, cost, $3,000,000.

California Palace of the Legion of Honor, in Lincoln Park, overlooking the Golden Gate, is a replica if the Palace of the Legion of Honor in Paris. It was presented to the city. The structure cost $2,000,000. United States Mint, located at Market street and Duboce avenue, built in 1937; Post Office Building, corner of Seventh and Mission streets; Ferry Building, at the foot of Market street on the waterfront, built by the State in 1896 at a cost of $1,000,000. It is 659 feet long and 156 feet wide, and in addition to serving as a ferryboat terminal, contains many State offices. The Customs House and United States Appraiser's Building represent an expenditure of more than $1,000,000. In Golden Gate Park are located the De Young Memorial Museum, Academy of Sciences, Steinhart Aquarium, Museum of Anthropology. At Kearny and Washington streets is the Hall of Justice, erected in 1910 at a cost of $1,000,000, containing police courts and the criminal department of the superior court. The Golden Gate Bridge cost $35,000,000, was completed early in 1937 and opened to traffic in May, 1937, and the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge, at a cost of $78,000,000, was opened to vehicular traffic November 12, 1936.

PARKS

San Francisco is noted for its beautiful and extensive parks. There are 45 parks and 80 recreational units, with a total acreage of 3268; others are under development. In addition to the municipal parks, the several government reservations, the largest of which is the Presidio, comprising 1542 acres, all go toward augmenting the aggregate area of the city parks. The area given does not include the numerous golf courses in and about the city. More than $15,000,000 has been expended on municipal parks since 1870. All of San Francisco's parks are "man-made." Originally only sand dunes marked the spots where today are gardens of rarest flowers, shrubs and giant trees. Even lakes, streams, waterfalls, hills, valleys and dales were worked out by man, to say nothing of the miles of walks, bridle paths and boulevards traversing the parks. Golden Gate Park is one of the world's most noted playgrounds. It comprises 1013 acres and is about 3 miles long and a half-mile wide, extending from Stanyan Street on the east to the Pacific Ocean on the west and lies in the midst of San Francisco's choice residential districts.

In the park are many museums, monuments, an aviary, aquarium, music temple, stadium, tennis courts, baseball grounds, football grounds, trotting and pacing horse track, athletic field and running track paddocks, and children's play grounds. There are more than 25 miles of improved driveways in the park. Wild animals of many species are to be seen, while every bird and squirrel known to California roams or flies at will through the dense woods and shrubbery. At the western end of the park is to be seen the sloop "Gjoa," the only vessel that ever navigated the Northwest Passage, and which was given to San Francisco by its owner and explorer, Captain Roald Amundsen, discoverer of the South Pole also; the gift was accepted by San Francisco June 16, 1909. The ship was hauled upon the beach and is protected by a high iron fence.

SOCIAL

San Francisco has more than 294 churches, representing many denominations. The congregations of the churches include people of many nationalities, such as English, German, Italian, French, Spanish, Scandinavian, Russian and Chinese.

There are numerous societies, clubs, lodges, and fraternal groups beside the civic, historical, military, religious and sporting groups. San Francisco contains many foreign colonies where the daily life and social events familiar to their native countries have been reestablished here.

The cosmopolitan character of San Francisco is well portrayed by the many interesting and diversified events which take place daily. The citizen or visitor may find many educational things of interest, such as lectures, concerts, readings, recitals, special exhibits of drawing, painting, sculpture, and other works of art.

There are two public art galleries and several semi-public galleries which offer exhibits and collections of national and international fame.

There is a main public library in the Civic Center with 21 branches and 6 depositories. This system has 520,000 volumes. There are 97 private and special libraries, including technical and institutional. There are also numerous circulating libraries.

The Municipal Auditorium, with a seating capacity of 11,000, contains a magnificent organ and is in use for a variety of events daily throughout the year. The Civic Opera House and the War Memorial Building provide a home for opera, the symphony orchestra, and a permanent war relics museum. San Francisco is the first city in the nation to have a civic opera house. It has a seating capacity of 3285.

HEALTH

San Francisco is a clean city with a cool, bracing, equable all-year-round open climate. The Daily Mean Maximum Temperature is 62.6 degrees, and the Daily Mean Minimum Temperature is 50.2 degrees, with an average daily range of 12.2 degrees. A study of the air conditions in twenty-three prominent cities in the United States places San Francisco in the front rank, second only to Boston. The sun shone sixty-six out of every one hundred possible hours, according to the Weather Bureau Records, for a period of more than 20 years.

GOLDEN GATE INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION

The Golden Gate International Exposition, designated by Congressional and Presidential action as America's official World's Fair on the Pacific Coast, will open February 18 and close December 2 of 1939. Its site is 400-acre Treasure Island, reclaimed for the purpose in the center of San Francisco Bay and described as the largest island ever built by man.

The Exposition will celebrate completion of the $78,000,000 San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge, longest and most costly bridge in the world; the $35,000,000 Golden Gate Bridge, longest single span in the world; the aerial "bridging" of the Pacific Ocean by scheduled passenger and mail flights of the Clipper Ships, and the development of huge electrical horsepower by new hydro-electrical projects in the Western mountains, particularly Boulder, Bonneville and Grand Coulee dams.

The Treasure Island fill totals 20,000,000 cubic yards of black sand, bound by 287,000 tons of rock in a sea wall. This World's Fair site is 5520 feet long by 3400 feet wide, stands 13 feet above mean lower water, and is connected to Yerba Buena Island by a causeway 900 feet long and 110 feet wide. The U. S. Engineering Department carried out the reclamation, which was completed in 1937 under an authorized WPA appropriation of $3,803,900 sponsored by the Exposition Company.

After the close of the 1939 World's Fair, Treasure Island will become an airport operated by the City and County of San Francisco for the benefit of cities surrounding the harbor, with a combined population approaching 2,000,000—perhaps the most centralized airport in the world. Direct highway connection with the Bay Bridge brings the Island within ten minutes, by motor car, of downtown San Francisco and central Oakland.

The Island's double function made possible a dual program of construction. Three buildings, completed in 1937, are permanent in concrete and steel as airport facilities at a total cost of $2,000,000. Two hangars, each 287 by 335 feet and 76 feet high, will serve the Fair as exhibit palaces, and a three-story concrete Air Terminal building will house administrative offices of the Exposition.

The remainder of the Exposition's $18,600,000 construction schedule will be of timber, bolted together to facilitate removal from airport runways after the Fair. Core of the building program is a central court and 400-foot tower, from which will radiate plazas framed by six great blocks of exhibit palaces averaging 200 feet wide and ranging from 400 to 900 feet in length. More than $10,000,000 worth of buildings were completed or under construction late in 1937.

Dual function is recognized also in highway construction. Three lanes between Island and Bay Bridge are a permanent installation to serve the airport; three additional lanes are built, where necessary, on timber trestlework to reduce excavation, and will be removed at the close of the Fair. An elaborate grade separation will handle traffic on and off the bridge by right turns only, eliminating the hazard of turns across traffic.

Exposition Highways are planned to handle 3,000 cars hourly between the bridge and a 12,000-car parking lot on the Island. Mass transportation will be accommodated by ferry boats plying from three slips on the San Francisco side of the Island and one on the Oakland shore. First World's Fair ever beyond the reach of pedestrian approach, these transit facilities will handle visitors at the peak rate of 65,000 hourly.

Architecture, illumination and landscaping will be combined to take complete advantage of the Exposition's spectacularly beautiful setting in the center of San Francisco Bay, and will create an effect that carries out the "Pageant of the Pacific" theme of the Fair. Basic architectural forms are borrowed from older civilizations around the Pacific, particularly the Mayan, Cambodian, Incan and Malayan, for a massed effect of stepped setbacks, that will be enhanced by horticultural plantings along the baselines, and lighting effects to lend an atmosphere of spacious mystery to the skyline.

Approximately $2,000,000 is budgeted for landscaping and horticulture, which will be lavishly colored and largely subtropical in keeping with the Exposition's California setting. More than four thousand trees, 70,000 shrubs and literally millions of flowering plants will be employed; one feature is a "Persian Prayer Rug" of mesembryanthemum covering 25 acres. Interior courts of the World's Fair city will be treated under separate color schemes, with species selected for similarity in the hues of their blooms, and night lighting will preserve the distinctive character of each court while maintaining the harmony of the whole.

Participation pledged by governmental and industrial units gave early assurance of World's Fair scope. By autumn of 1937, formal announcements of participation had been made by fifteen nations—Japan, Mexico, Guatemala, Peru, Ecuador, El Salvador, Cuba, Nicaragua, Honduras, Venezuela, the Philippine Commonwealth, Costa Rica, the Netherlands East Indies, Santo Domingo and Egypt. Although the Exposition will stress the "Pageant of the Pacific" negotiations of European nations promise representation from every quarter of the globe. The Federal Government has set aside $1,500,000 for its building and exhibits.

At this same early date, half the states of the Union had made appropriations or taken definite legislative steps toward their participation. California's $5,000,000 appropriation will erect state and county buildings and fill them with the graphic story of the Golden State; it is indicated that Oregon, Illinois and Missouri each will spend approximately $100,000, and lesser sums had been allocated by Arizona, Nevada, Utah and Wisconsin. Definite steps had been taken by Montana, New Mexico, Wyoming, Arkansas, Florida, Iowa, North Carolina, Colorado, Michigan, Texas, Oklahoma, Washington, Idaho, Ohio, Kansas and Minnesota. Hawaii, Alaska and the Canadian province of British Columbia also were assured exhibitors.

More than thirty industrial concerns of national ranking, including leaders in the fields of banking, communication, food processing and packing, electrical manufacturing, steel, railroads and others, had signed contracts for exhibit space by the autumn of 1937. Scores of others were completing negotiations for space in the Exposition's own group of exhibit halls, or for individual building sites.

Topical groupings of exhibits will be made in Halls of Foods, Beverages, and Agriculture; Electricity and Communications; Homes and Gardens; the Fine and Liberal Arts; Business Progress; Hall of Mineral Industries; General Exhibits, and International displays. The eleven Western States, co-sponsors with California and San Francisco, will assemble their scenic, agricultural and industrial summaries in the Hall of Western States, and an unique feature will be the Vacationland building, sponsored by transportation lines, resorts and regional organizations. This structure will concentrate graphic displays of the recreational and scenic marvels of the Pacific slope.

Here in the Vacationland building will be a clear expression of the Fair's recreational theme, which will interpret scientific and mechanical progress in the light of the new Treasure Island, 400-acre site of the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition on San Francisco Bay, will look like this to an expected attendance of 20,000,000—if they come via the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge and connecting causeway, rather than by ferry. Canary Island and Washingtonia palms, lawns and mesembryanthemum, including a "Persian Prayer Rug" covering 25 acres, will beautify the west facade of the World's Fair city. The plan of exhibit palaces radiating from the 400-foot Central Tower is brought out in this photograph of a scale model; behind the massive palaces are buildings to be erected by individual exhibitors.

leisure it bestows upon humanity. Utilization of this leisure, whether in recreation in the Pacific playground or in self-improvement, will be a co-ordinating note in the variety of World's Fair displays.

Static exhibits will be avoided on Treasure Island, which will seek in every field a vitalized or operating demonstration of the product, the nationality, the scientific principle that is the feature of the individual display. Windowless exhibit palaces will permit uniform illumination by day or night; the ground plan of the compact Exposition city will circulate visitors by direct and natural routes throughout the Island, avoiding congestion and exhaustion. Several forms of intramural transportation are under consideration.

The broad program of musical events will include outstanding symphony orchestras, choral groups and individual artists. The Theater of the Sky will present the world of drama, dancing and allied arts; a full calendar of land and water sports will round out the entertainment, with carnival features in the 40-acre fun zone carrying out the Pageant of the Pacific motif. Eating and dancing, particularly, will be international in scope.

Financing of the Western World's Fair in 1939 is based upon WPA and PWA grants approximating $6,250,000, used in construction phases of dual utility for Exposition and later airport value. Second unit was a campaign to raise $7,500,000 in public subscriptions, which will be refunded in whole or in part as the final surplus permits. Receipts from rental of exhibit space, concession privileges, advance admissions and other income will complete the construction program and launch the Fair into its operating period. Including California's $5,000,000 appropriation, the Federal Government's $1,500,000, and the expenditures of industrial and governmental exhibitors on Treasure Island, the scope of the Fair is estimated at $50,000,000.

Leland W. Cutler is President of the Exposition's sponsoring non-profit corporation. Executive Vice-President is Colonel J. Franklin Bell; construction is in charge of W. P. Day, Vice-President and Director of Works. Chairman of the Board is Atholl McBean; John F. Forbes is Treasurer, C. J. Hasson is Controller, and Colonel Allen G. Wright is Secretary and General Counsel of the World's Fair Company. H. C. Bottorff is Executive Secretary.

Other Vice-Presidents are K. R. Kingsbury and George D. Smith; the Board of Management numbers James B. Black, Colbert Coldwell, John W. Mailliard, Jr. and Mr. Kingsbury. Commissioner in charge of Federal participation is George Creel. Department heads are Mr. Day, Director of Works; Mr. Bottorff, Treasury; Wm. W. Monahan, director of Exhibits and Concessions; Brigadier-General William E. Gillmore, Director of Governmental Participation, and Clyde M. Vandeburg, Director of Promotion and Publicity. Arthur Brown, Jr., is chairman of the Architectural Commission.

POLK'S
CROCKER-LANGLEY
STREET AND AVENUE GUIDE
1938

Copyright, 1938, by R. L. Polk & Co.

EXPLANATIONS

According to the method adopted in this city for numbering buildings, Market Street is the starting point for numbers on all streets running from it in a northerly, southerly or westerly direction, and the water front for all streets running therefrom in a westerly or southwesterly direction. The numbers on all streets not commencing at Market Street or the water front run in conformity with the numbers of the main streets running parallel with them, except in the case of a few streets which are numbered in an irregular manner.

On all streets between the water front and Central Avenue the even numbers are on the right-hand side, and the odd numbers on the left, starting from the point of beginning. Beyond Central Avenue most of the streets have been numbered in a contrary manner. One hundred numbers, or as many thereof as are necessary, are allotted to each block bounded by main streets; for instance, Montgomery Street commences at Market, and the main streets crossing as you proceed north are Sutter, Bush, Pine, etc. Therefore, any numbers between 1 and 100 will be found on the right or left-hand side of the street between Market and Sutter, between 100 and 200 from Sutter to Bush, between 200 and 300 from Bush to Pine.

In the streets which are numbered, a dash (—) indicates that the cross street does not extend to that side; (o), the street borders on the bay, or public park, cemetery, etc., consequently there are no buildings on blocks thus designated; (c), the street is not opened through the block, or is interrupted in its course at that point by a public square, cemetery, etc.; (e), end of street.

Thus assuring you the ultimate service that skill and care can produce in the way of City Directories or other reference media.

The following "Standards of Practice," adopted at the inception of the Association of North American Directory Publishers in 1898, and strictly adhered to over the years, is your guarantee of satisfactory Directory Service.

The publisher of a Directory should dedicate his best efforts to the cause of business uplift and social service, and to this end pledges himself:

1. To consider, first, the interest of the user of the book.
2. To subscribe to and work for truth, honesty and accuracy in all departments.
3. To avoid confusing duplication of listings, endeavoring to classify every concern under the one heading that best describes it, and to treat additional listings as advertising, to be charged for at regular rates.
4. To increase public knowledge of what Directories contain; to study public needs and make Directories to supply them; to revise and standardize methods and classifications, so that what is wanted may be most easily found, and the Directory be made to serve its fullest use as a business and social reference book and director of buyer and seller.
5. To decline any advertisement which has a tendency to mislead or which does not conform to business integrity.
6. To solicit subscriptions and advertising solely upon the merits of the publications.
7. To avoid misrepresentation by statement or inference regarding circulation, placing the test of reference publicity upon its accessibility to seekers, rather than on the number of copies sold.
8. To cooperate with approved organizations and individuals engaged in creative advertising work.
9. To avoid unfair competition.
10. To determine what is the highest and largest function of Directories in public service, and then to strive in every legitiimate way to promote that function.
